Afterschool with Laura, Kerri and Elizabeth

February 2012

It's February! We are staying cozy and getting creative here at SOLA! We hope you are having a great winter (a warm one so far). As the month rolls on, the days are getting longer and longer!! Most nights the playground will now be open until 6:00. Please remember to use the garden gate to pick your child up. The glass door will still be used on rainy days. Thank you.

We would like to welcome Elizabeth into our afterschool program. Elizabeth has been an assistant teacher in the morning preschool since August and is now joining the afterschool three days a week.

Parents, please remember that toys from home are not welcome at SOLA. We have had a lot of children bringing toys and they can create problems. If your child has a toy for school, please remind him or her to leave it in their bag at SOLA.

Have you seen that your children are poets!? Check out the board outside of our art room for a new SOLA Kid's quote (or two) every week.

SOLA parents, help us create!!

Please keep the recycled donations coming!

2. Baby Food Jars
3. Corks
