

SOLA Mid-Day News

Volume 2, Issue 6

February 2012

Just a few reminders:

-Please send in an extra set of clothes for your child. Many still have extra clothes with shorts and t-shirts, which will not be warm enough. We will send the old extra set home when we receive a new one.

-We spend a lot of time outside, so as it gets colder please make sure your children have warm jackets as well as hats and gloves to stay warm.

-Arrival time is 12:30 for drop-offs.

Our Focus:

This month we will spend time focusing on:

- Africa: Morocco and Togo
- Amphibians
- Fish

Henri Rousseau

Henri Rousseau was a French Post-Impressionist painter. He was self-taught and considered to be a naïve or primitive painter. He is best known for his paintings that depict jungle scenes, even though he never left France or saw a jungle.
